Leave Policy - FD Business Service Pvt. Ltd.

Effective Date: 1st April.'2026
Approved By: FDBS Top Management
Applies To: All regular employees (probationary, confirmed, and contract staff unless otherwise stated)

A. Objective

To ensure fair, transparent, and efficient leave management while maintaining operational continuity in a high-availability call center environment.

B. Types of Leave

1. Casual Leave (CL)

- Eligibility: 6 days per calendar year/0.5 per calendar month (pro-rated for joiners/leavers).
- Purpose: Short-term personal needs or emergencies.
- Utilization: Max 3 CL can be availed at once
- Approval: Apply at least 1 working day in advance through leave request form/email; emergencies require immediate intimation to Team Lead.
- Carry Forward: Not allowed; lapses at year-end.
- Probation Period: CL is not allowed during probation unless approved by HR for emergencies.

2. Earned Leave (EL)

- Eligibility: 12 days per calendar year/1.0 per calendar month (credited monthly).
- Utilization: Max 6 EL can be availed at once
- Carry Forward: Not allowed; lapses at year-end.
- Approval: Minimum 7 days advance notice.
- Probation Period: EL is not allowed during probation unless approved by HR for emergencies.

3. Sick Leave (SL)

- Eligibility: 6 days per calendar year/0.5 per calendar month

- Approval: For more than 2 consecutive days, medical certificate is mandatory.
- Carry Forward: Not allowed.

4. Maternity Leave

- As per the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 – 26 weeks for first two children; 12 weeks thereafter.
- Additional unpaid leave up to 1 month on medical grounds with doctor's certificate.

5. Paternity Leave

- Eligibility: 5 working days within 3 months of child birth.
- Approval: Minimum 1-week advance notice.

6. Unplanned Leave (UL)

Any last moment absenteeism in accordance to the planned manpower will lead to Salary deduction depending on number of unplanned leaves. Company holds the right to decide on deduction.

7. Leave Without Pay (LWP)

Definition:
Leave Without Pay is time off from work when an employee has no eligible paid leave balance (CL, EL, SL) only when leave is taken with prior approval.

Rules:

1. Approval:
    - Must be requested in writing and approved by the Reporting Manager.
    - If taken without approval, will be treated as Unauthorized Absence and may attract penalties.
2. Impact on Salary & Benefits:

- Deduction will be made on a pro-rata basis from monthly salary.
- Continuous LWP trend beyond 3 months will result in loss of continuity for certain benefits (leave accrual, incentives).

3. Impact on Probation:
   - For employees on probation, LWP will extend the probation period by the number of LWP days taken.
4. Link to Absconding Clause:
   - LWP exceeding 10 consecutive working days without written communication will be treated as Abandonment of Employment (Absconding).
5. Payroll Cut-off:
   - All LWP for the month will be calculated and adjusted in that month's payroll cycle.
6. No Adjustment After Payroll:
   - Once salary is processed, no retroactive conversion from LWP to paid leave will be allowed.

C. General Leave Rules

1. Sandwich Leave Rule: Weekly off/public holiday between two leave days will be counted as leave.
2. No Call No Show (NCNS):
   - ≤ 3 days → 3 days' salary + final warning.
   - > 3 days → Treated as Absconding; employment terminated.
3. Leave encashment will be processed during Full & Final Settlement only.
4. Excess leave taken beyond balance will be deducted from salary.
